

2020-2021 BIG in a Nutshell

Polk County

Eric Eaton, Social Studies

Polk County Middle School, Todd Murphy, principal

“Quilting Carolina: North Carolina and United States History Through Quilts”

Materials for creating quilt squares in a project that incorporates math, art, and social studies.

Kimberly Granville, AIG, 3-5

Polk Central, Tryon, Sunny View Elementary Schools

“Mathematical Mosaics”

Materials to learn how Rubik’s Cubes work and to make art using the concept of mosaics.

Ginger Rackley, 5th grade

Saluda Elementary, Cari Maneen, principal

“Bringing Science to Life with Art”

Materials for making dioramas, masks, and paintings to demonstrate understanding of science projects.

Ellen Rogers, 1st grade

Saluda Elementary, Cari Maneen, principal

“Holi: A Spring Festival of Color”

Materials for celebrating the Indian holiday “Holi,” including shirts, powder, masks, and chalk.

Spartanburg District One

Jennifer Bogan, PE

New Prospect Elementary, Shameka Dawkins, principal

“Exer-Rhythm: Drums Alive!”

Materials for “Drums Alive” program that integrates dance with exercise in PE class.

Amy Roote, Visual Arts

Landrum Middle School, Tucker Hamrick, principal

“Let’s Hit the Trail: Foothills Quilt Trail”

Materials for a quilt-making project that incorporates history and math as well as art.

Julia Sullivan, Gifted and Talented 3-6

Holly Springs, Motlow Elementary

“Shout Out to Shakespeare!”

Workshops by Warehouse Theater and Spartanburg Ballet, plus materials for creating related art projects.